Day of Prayer

Consecrated ^{for} Life

That we may eagerly respond, "Here I am, Lord," whenever we hear God call upon us to be His hands, feet and voice here on earth. "Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?' 'Here I am,' I said, 'send me!'" (Isaiah 6:8) Every day – in little ways and in big ways – God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry or just someone to open a door for a stranger, God constantly provides doors of opportunity. The next time you hear God calling, have the courage to walk through the door and say "Here I am, Lord."

In The Sight Of Angels, I Will Sing Your Praises, Lord.

DSF-2016

"His Mercy Endures Forever"

If you have not already offered your pledge in this year's Diocesan Services Fund, please do so today. DSF 2015 is focused on His Mercy Endures Forever, in which your gifts will benefit the Archdiocesan ministries that serve thousands and thousands of our brothers and sisters in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. Through your generous support of DSF, we bring Christ's comfort and care to the many pressing needs that cannot be addressed individually or by one parish alone.

Our parish goal for 2016 is $122,000. With every parish family's full participation, we will surely exceed this amount and do our share to help so many in need, advancing the work of the church in our community. To give online, please visit www.archgh.org/dsf. For those of you who have already responded with a gift, please accept our sincere gratitude.

Join us for Rosary every Monday at 7:00 pm in the Church. Everyone Welcome.

Rediscover Jesus

Chapter 4 Page 29

Jesus was walking with his disciples in the district of Caesarea Philippi when he asked them two questions. The first question was: "Who do people say that I am?" The disciples replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets" (Matt 16:13-20).

The second question Jesus asked was: "But who do you say that I am?"

This is the Jesus question. Who do you say that Jesus is?

Page 31 Question to Consider: Have you ever really explored the Jesus question?

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time C 1 Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8

Childlike Enthusiasm

Stand in front of a group of kids and say these words: "I need a volunteer." Every hand will go up.

Stand in front of adults and the results will be different. We are shy to reply. We need a personal invitation. We need to know it will not waste our time. We need to know someone respects our gifts as well as our responsibilities. Maybe, just maybe, then we will volunteer.

We are usually glad when we do.

In the year King Uzziah died, Isaiah received a call from God. He saw a vision of Seraphim calling out to one another of God's holiness in a dwelling filled with smoke. Isaiah thought himself unworthy to be there until one of the angels touched his mouth with a burning ember. Cleansed from sin, Isaiah responded like a young child ready to volunteer. "Here I am! Send me!"

Sometimes we do not volunteer because we feel unworthy. We are painfully aware of our sin. But once we have the vision, once we perceive God's presence, once we experience God's mercy, we do respond to God's call. We have to.

In the end, there is no volunteering among Christians. There is only ministry, the natural response to the life of grace.

Our Weekly Church Bulletin

Our weekly church bulletin is published by the Trinity Publications Co. The cost for this service is paid for by the support of local advertisers, parishioners who place memorial ads in memory of a loved one, or parishioners wishing to help defray this expense by purchasing "Compliments of" ads. Please carefully consider if you would like to support your parish bulletin through purchasing an advertisement space. Any help that you can give in this effort would be appreciated.

Please support those businesses who advertise in our bulletin and help us with this publication expense. When you visit one of our advertisers, please mention their ad and THANK them for their participation and support.

Mr. Rey Barron, a representative with Trinity Publications, will be here in the parish preparing ads, memorial placements, and "Compliments of" ads the week of February 1st-4th and February 8th-11th. If you are interested in contacting Rey for information, or know of a business who might be interested in advertising, please call the Parish Office 297-3041, or his direct line, 512-577-9411. Thanks in advance for your help.

St. Michael's youth will hold soup pots at the exits of the church on Super Bowl weekend, February 7th. All money collected will be donated to St. Vincent DePaul at St. Michael's.

tacklehunger.org

Start gathering change/dollars to drop in the soup pot and support the effort of "loving our neighbors"! A simple prayer: "Lord, even as we enjoy the Super Bowl football game, help us be mindful of those who are without a bowl of soup to eat" is inspiring a youth-led movement to help hungry and hurting people around the world. Ordinary young people have generated more than $90 million for soup kitchens, food banks and other charities in communities across the country. In addition, hundreds of thousands of youth have experienced for themselves the joy and satisfaction of giving and serving, inspiring people of all ages to follow their generous example.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT:

"Dear young friends, do not be afraid to give your all. Christ will never disappoint you."
