BULLETIN DEADLINE Monday 12:00 noon

"There are no strangers here... only friends you haven't met."

That we can open our hearts and allow the Holy Spirit to guide our lives and decisions. "The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." Acts 13:52 Because the disciples heard Our Lord's call, they were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we take time to open our hearts, listen to God, ask for His direction and allow the Holy Spirit to guide our lives and our decisions.

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal will take place next week. One way that this appeal works to support home mission dioceses in the United States is by supporting seminarian formation in poor dioceses. The blessing of seminarians places a financial burden on dioceses, because educating each seminarian costs $35-40K per year. Your support is needed for these young men so that they might go back and serve their parishes. Please strengthen the Church at home by making a generous gift to next week's appeal.

We have an open hour in our Adoration Chapel which needs to be filled by one (or two) dedicated volunteers. If you are willing to spend prayer time with the Blessed Sacrament in the Adoration Chapel on Thursday, from 1:00 – 2:00 pm, please call Cheri McBurnett at 979-297-8874.

Presents:

Letting God's Mercy Heal and Change Us

By: Fr. Matt Linn

We become like the God we adore. Thus, one of the easiest ways to heal ourselves and our society is to heal our image of God, so that we know a God who loves us at least as much as those who love us the most. We will focus on reconstructing our unloving image of God (e.g. perhaps a vengeful punishing God) if it keeps us from experiencing "God is Love" who helps us grow in love and freedom. The session includes a video and healing prayer process.
