

The background of the entire page is a soft-focus illustration. It depicts Jesus, with a beard and wearing a crown of thorns, looking down at a woman who is lying on the ground. The woman is wearing a headscarf and a long robe. Other figures are visible in the background, some looking on. The scene is set outdoors under a bright, hazy sky with a rainbow visible in the upper right corner. The overall color palette is dominated by greens and blues.

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought, 'While it is true that I neither fear God nor respect any human being, because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.'

Luke 18:4-5

That we may be persistent in our stewardship, even when it is not convenient or comfortable. "...be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient..." 2 Timothy 4:2
It is not always convenient to be a good steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable! Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He called us to be faithful.

Names of those individuals deceased since November 2015 whose funeral was held at St. Michael's are automatically included in the roll call. In commemoration, a special display of our parish's Book of the Dead can be viewed in back of the Church during the month of November. If you wish, you may bring a small, labeled framed picture of your loved one for display during the All Soul's Day Mass.

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time C 1 Exodus 17:8-13

Raising Hands in Prayer

When people find it hard to pray, they seek ways to improve. Sometimes a simple change can bring great benefits to our prayer.

Most people derive benefit from prayer if they get into the right routine. For example, the celebration of the Eucharist always follows the same outline. The predictability of the structure allows people to enter into the prayer. Some young people express frustration about the repetitive nature of the mass, and that is understandable. But it takes time with the repetition to let the mystery of the mass sink into one's spirit. Once it does, the repetition provides a framework out of which people can pray.

Prayer at home can be improved through routine as well. Many people find it helpful to pick a certain time of day when they will go to pray. Others find a certain place they can use—whether it is a room or a particular chair. The selection of time and place provides the structure in which prayer can happen.

Posture can also help prayer. Some people kneel. Others sit. Early Christians stood for prayer and lifted their hands aloft. The priest still uses this posture when he prays at mass.

It is similar to the posture taken by Moses when Amalek waged war against Israel. As long as Moses' hands were outstretched, Israel had the better of the fight.

If we are fighting at prayer, a minor adjustment in place, time, or posture might help.
