

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Everyone who acknowledges me before others
I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father.”

Matthew 10:32

Everyone who acknowledges me before others
I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father.

That we have the strength and courage to be joyful witnesses of our Catholic faith in all circumstances. "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." Matthew 10:32 Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith or do you remain silent when the situation arises? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself.

Prayer: Abiding in the Love of Christ

By Blake Novosad

Blake was born and raised in Lake Jackson and attended Church here at St. Michael. He was blessed to receive the gift of faith from an early age and was very involved in middle school and high school youth groups. He first felt a call to the priesthood his junior year of high school, but decided to pursue his dream of being in the Aggie Band instead. He attended Texas A&M University, was in the Aggie Band for four years, and graduated with a BBA in Finance. After graduation, he began a career as a commercial lender and set out to achieve his next goal, getting married and starting a family. He slowly and reluctantly came to the realization that although God gives us the gift of free will, our true joy comes from surrendering to His. After a few months of prayer and reflection the love of Jesus and the intercession of Mary gave him the courage to die to himself and follow the Lord. He is studying at the Pontifical North American College in Rome, Italy.
