If he listens to you,
you have won your
back.

Christ is in our midst today as we gather for worship. Look around and see that presence in your sisters and brothers. May our prayer today be to continue to recognize Christ's presence in others as we go out into the world after our time together.

Adoration Chapel

The Adoration Chapel will reopen on Monday, September 11.

We have added a number of new people to our Adoration Chapel schedule following our sign up weekend. Thank you and I pray you are blessed during your hour.

We are still in need of 26 people to fulfill the two people for every hour requirement. Please continue to prayerfully consider adding the Adoration Chapel to your weekly prayer life by committing to one hour a week. We have had several people requesting to share an hour. If you might be interested in sharing an hour we can match you with others requesting same day and hour.

PARISH EVENTS

Season V is entitled “We are the Good News!” The small faith sharing communities will begin meeting the week of Oct. 8. Please consider joining us – all are welcome! A witness from one of our small community members follows – “I felt very close to the Lord as a result of being in an ARISE small community. Through the love of the wonderful people in my community I have truly grown/. The kindness, interest and care shown by and for each member were evident each week. I was especially inspired by the stories shared of how God works in the lives of others and the generous ways they respond in community service. It caused me to re-evaluate my choices.”.

The 1 CHURCH / 1 DAY model of strategic, sustainable 24/7 prayer unites churches without having to physically come together. Each church takes one day every month to pray for 24 hours. This creates a church-led, year-round prayer covering for the community. St. Michael Catholic Community has committed to the last Thursday of each month to pray for the needs of our parish and the community. The committed prayers can pray from home or wherever it is convenient. Please contact Dan and Bunny Swist to volunteer for one hour on the last Thursday of each month to join this effort. Email danann@sbcglobal.net Phone# 979 297-0736

RESISTING HAPPINESS chapter 31

Key Point: Our best friends encourage and challenge us to become the best-version-of-ourselves. They don't let us waste our lives and they push us to serve powerfully.

Action Step: Who in your circle is God calling you to encourage or challenge to become a better-version-of-themselves?

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time A 1 Ezekiel 33:7-9

Charitable Correction

Living the spiritual life means more than correcting our own faults. It also includes correcting the faults of our neighbors. When we do this, we run the risk of misunderstanding and anger. But it is more important to offer correction when neighbors are wrong.

God appointed Ezekiel as Israel's watchman. When God wants the prophet to speak against wicked people, Ezekiel must do so. If he does not, God will hold him responsible for their demise. But if Ezekiel warns the wicked about God's wishes, Ezekiel will be saved, even if the wicked ignore him.

Correcting our neighbor is best done in the spirit of charity. When we correct our neighbor in anger, we share the wickedness we are trying to correct.

Sometimes our neighbors will respond with appreciation. Sometimes they will not. It does not matter. It is important to bring to their attention the consequences of their actions.

Many people follow this advice in matters of state. As responsible citizens, they let government leaders know what follows from laws they do and do not enact. Sometimes the laws change. But even if they do not, God takes pleasure in those who speak the truth.
